

Barolo

Red garnet colour with orangey nuances which become more accentuated as years go by; delicate, etheric, intense, full and lingering aromas; flavour warm, full, complex, dry and harmonious. Its austerity is linked to the presence of sweet and complex tannins

VINTAGE 2021James Suckling – 93

Expressive and overt Barolo with camphor-lifted aromas of redcurrants and watermelon, tar and licorice. Light- to medium-bodied with velvety tannins and again lifted acidity. Chewy palate with floral flavors and good length. Drink or hold.

VINTAGE 2020James Suckling – 91

This shows a dusty mineral nose with notes of red fruit, walnuts, cedar and a hint of spice box. Juicy and fine-textured on the palate with medium body and bright acidity. The tannins are chalky and tense. Dry and savory finish. Try from 2026.

VINTAGE 2019James Suckling – 92

Subtle notes of dark cherries, rose hips, cocoa and bark with some earthy undertones. Medium- to full-bodied with firm, chalky tannins and juicy red berries underneath. Fresh and racy in the finish. Try after 2025.

VINTAGE 2017James Suckling – 93

Aromas of ripe red berries and hints of grainy earth, rose petals and citrus rind. Full-bodied, and densely packed with fine, lightly chewy tannins and very good fruit drive from start to finish. Well done. Delicious to taste now, but needs a few years. Best from 2023.
