This Barbera captivates with its pretty, light aromas of fresh strawberries, cherries and delicate hint of lavender. Clean and pure on the palate, the wine showcases a delightful interplay of red currant and raspberry flavors. A savory undercurrent emerges, accompanied by a crisp acidity that carries through to the finish.

Casa Scarpa shows that sticking to tradition pays off. This tart and zingy Barbera opens with aromas of cranberry and sour cherry mixed with purple flowers and wild herbs. The palate is energetic with mixed red berries, savory spice and crushed stone all being lifted by the crunch and acidity on the finish.

Scarpa is a historic and traditional estate that no matter the era, sticks to its core values of tradition. This Barbera highlights the key characteristics of one of Italy's great grapes. The nose is this perfect combination of red, blue and black fruit notes mixed with a touch of clove and savory dried herbs, like bay leaf. The palate carries on the same flavors of the nose with very bright acidity that makes the mouth water.
