

ROAGNA®

Barbaresco Gallina 2019

The plot is located in the initial part of the Gallina historical mention, in the municipality of Neive.
Calcareous clay soil, with a good presence of sand, gives this Barbaresco a distinct finesse.

Appellation:	Barbaresco DOCG
Grapes:	Nebbiolo 100%
Vineyard:	One of the famed vineyards located in the commune of Neive
Soil:	Predominantly sandy soils mixed with calcareous marl
Viticulture:	Farmed organically
Vinification:	Fermentation lasts ten days in large wood casks. They ferment with a pied de cuvee made from their indigenous yeasts. They then use the technique of submerged cap - which can last 60-70 days
Ageing:	Aged for 5 years in large neutral botti

VINTAGE 2019Vinous – 93

The 2019 Barbaresco Gallina is a very pretty, almost ethereal wine for a site that often yields more fruity Barbaresco. The aromatics are especially open at this stage, even with its recent bottling. Silky tannins and mid-weight structures are the signatures. Dark red cherry, leather, spice and menthol linger on the sublime finish. It would certainly not be a crime to dink this on the younger side.

Wine Spectator – 97

The aromas are still a little shy, hinting at cherry and rose, with a solid core of cherry, strawberry, rose, white pepper and stony mineral flavors. Yet it's the energy in this red that's compelling, experting itself from beginning to end. Offers superb elegance and harmony on a linear frame. Best from 2027 through 2050. 369 cases made.
