Barolo di Barolo 2019

The grapes for this wine come from a vineyard located in the village of Barolo, in the Terlo geographical mention.

The idea is to produce a wine that is an expression of the village, as the land parcel is on the border with the MGA Coste and close to Ravera, resulting in fine and elegant wines.

Appellation:	Barolo DOCG

VINTAGE 2019

Vinous – 92

The 2019 Barolo del Comune di Barolo is tellar. Elegant and polished, the 2019 is super-expressive right out of the gate. I tasted it after all the big guns in the range (twice!), and it had no problem following them. This is one of the more open-knit, accessible wines in the Roagna range, but don't let that fool you. It is a very serious wine. Crushed flowers, mint, licorice, spice and dried herbs open in the glass, all framed by the veins of minerality that are such a signature at Terlo.

Wine Spectator – 94

Aromas of macerated cherry, strawberry and rose mark this supple, elegant red. Iron, tar and menthol elements seep in as this builds to the long, delineated aftertaste. Vibrant and tangy. Best from 2027 through 2043.
